ARTICLE 11 - OFFICIAL JURY

The refreshment stations are installed around every 5 km and on arrival. The distance may vary and will be specified on the route for reasons of runner safety. Timing will be posted on arrival. A live tracking will be organized.

Participants will have a maximum of 6 hours to complete the course to the finish line. After the end-of-race vehicle has passed, participants must comply with the traffic rules of the Highway Code.

ARTICLE 12 - GENERAL SERVICES

Police and rescue information.

ARTICLE 13 - ACCESS TO THE SITE AND SECURITY

The introduction to the Event site of all objects that may be dangerous or illegal, including drugs, firearms, blunt objects and explosive materials is strictly prohibited.

To access the site and participate in the Event, the participant expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Organizer may use security staff who will be entitled to control both the persons and their belongings. Anyone wishing to access the site agrees to submit to this check. In case of refusal, the person will not be allowed to access the site.

The Organizer and the security staff are entitled to refuse access to the Event or the continuation of the race to participants whose behaviour is likely to disrupt the smooth running of the Event, in particular and without the following be restrictive:

- Introduction of any object that could potentially interfere in any way with the evolution of the race, the traffic and/or the safety of the other participants;
- Introduction of any distinctive sign promoting, in any form whatsoever, a political, philosophical or religious opinion likely to undermine the image of the Event.

ARTICLE 14 – TRANSPORT

The starts of the Namur Marathon and Half-Marathon are given at different locations from the finish.

Paid shuttles are organized: bus for marathon runners, train and bus for half-marathon runners and bus for the 10K KickCancer.

The price of the shuttle is €4.

The choice of shuttle is made upon registration. Your choice is final and cannot be changed subsequently.

ARTICLE 15 – TIMEKEEPING

All participants will be given an electronic chip when removing the bib (chip glued behind each bib number) which will be automatically initialized on the starting line and serve as race control. A participant who does not use the roadway cannot be classified on arrival.

The electronic detection system is selected according to strict criteria of reliability. Despite the tests performed by manufacturers, there is still a very small percentage of non-detection. The absence of data resulting from this non-detection will not allow the Organizer to include the official or actual time of the participant concerned in the ranking. The Organizer will not be held responsible.

ARTICLE 16 – INSURANCE

Civil Liability: In accordance with the legislation in force, the Organizer has taken out insurance covering the pecuniary consequences of its civil liability, that of its agents and all the participants in the Event. Regarding the liability of participants, the intervention of this insurance for the latter is limited to the accidents they could cause during the course of the Event.

This guarantee will be in addition to or in the absence of other insurance which the participants could benefit elsewhere. Proof may be provided to any participant upon request.

Material Damage: The Organizer declines any responsibility in case of damage (theft, breakage, loss, etc.) suffered by the personal property of the participants, even if he has custody. Participants will not be able to turn against the Organizer for any damage to their equipment. The subscription of an insurance guaranteeing these risks is the responsibility of each one.

ARTICLE 17 – Retraction or cancellation by the Customer

17.1. The Client has the option to take out cancellation insurance for an additional fee. The amount is €12 for the Marathon, €9 for the Half-Marathon, and €6 for the 10K. By way of derogation from Article 8 of these regulations, Clients who have subscribed to this product may request a refund of their registration without having to provide any specific reasons. Optional items such as a T-shirt, medal engraving, shuttle service, and the cancellation policy itself will not be refunded (non-exhaustive list).

If circumstances require it (administrative decision, weather or health-related circumstances, insufficient registration), the Organizer reserves the right to modify the course, the distance to be covered, and/or to postpone the date and/or time of the Event at any time, without being held liable.

17.3.

In the event of a date change for an Event, the Client has the right to cancel their registration and receive a refund, provided that the request is submitted in writing to the Organizer within 14 business days following the date on which the change was notified to the Client.

If the Client does not respond within this time frame, their registration will be considered confirmed for the new dates.

Without prejudice to any special regimes to be adopted by the competent authorities, the threat of the Covid-19 virus and the related measures taken against it—as well as the threat of other epidemics and related measures, or any acts of government, strikes, lockouts, riots, mobilization, severe weather, shortages of equipment or transport means, fires, terrorism, terrorism-related risks, etc.—shall automatically be considered force majeure events for the purposes of this agreement. These justify the cancellation of an Event without the Organizer having to prove the unpredictability, irresistibility of the circumstances, or the impossibility of fulfilling its obligations. The same applies in the event of cancellation due to the detection of typical Covid-19 symptoms in a Client or due to any events beyond the control of the Organizer, who cannot be held responsible. In such cases, the Organizer is not obliged to refund all or part of the registration fee.

17.5. Termination

The Organizer and the Client both reserve the right to terminate the contractual relationship at any time in the event that the other party fails to fulfill any of its obligations under these regulations, without prejudice to any damages that may be claimed from the defaulting party.

17.6.

If the contractual relationship is terminated due to fault on the part of the Client, any outstanding amounts shall become immediately due and payable.

ARTICLE 18 - USE OF IMAGES

18.1. Image of the participant:

The Event may be captured for public communication in any form (including photo, video, etc.), on any existing or future media, in any format, for any communication to the public in the world whole, for any use including for advertising and/or commercial purposes, each participant expressly authorizes the Organizer, his beneficiaries or assigns (including his business partners) to set and reproduce, in any medium and by any means, and consequently, to reproduce and represent, without remuneration of any kind, his name, voice, image, and more generally his sports performance in the context of the Event (hereafter "his Image"), for a unlimited period after the date of the Event. The participant expressly authorizes the Organizer to grant to the partners of the Event sub-licenses of exploitation of his Image for a commercial exploitation and advertising of the Image.

To that end, each participant expressly and irrevocably authorizes the Organizer, its beneficiaries, its successors (including its business partners), to meet the requirements of advertising, promotional and / or commercial campaigns to 1) make any changes, additions, delete, which seems useful for the exploitation of its Image in the conditions defined above, 2) to associate and/or to combine with its Image, all the signatures, the hangers, the slogans, the legends, the marks, the distinctive signs, legal, visual and, in general, any element of any kind at the choice of the Organizer intended in particular to illustrate the communications media in which they are integrated.

Participant guarantees that he is not bound by any exclusive agreement regarding the use of its Image.

The Organizer, its beneficiaries, its successors expressly forbid using the name, the voice or the image of the participants in a pornographic, racist, xenophobic support, and more generally, forbid any exploitation damaging to the dignity of the participants. The participant is informed and fully accepts that his/her Image captured by the official providers of the Organizer may be accessible on the Organizer's website and on the Event website. Regarding the event site, the participant accepts that it can be identified by any internet user by name, surname and/or bib number.

18.2. Pictures of the Event:

Any communication of still image and/or animated sequence of the Event captured by the participant during his participation to the Event must be limited to a personal exploitation and cannot in any case be exploited in a promotional and/or commercial purpose outside the Event.

18.3. Aerial image capture:

Participants are informed that:

- On the day of the event, remotely piloted aircraft (drones) may be used for filming purposes;
- They may be located, during all or part of their participation in the Event within 30 meters of said aircraft
- If necessary, safety instructions will be communicated to them and must imperatively be respected.

ARTICLE 19 - PERSONAL DATA

In general, the personal data provided by the participants (hereinafter "the Data") is intended for the authorized staff of We4sport A.S.B.L. who is the organization responsible for processing these data.

The Data is used for the processing and the follow-up of their orders related to the Event, the after-sales service of the ordered products, the marketing management and the customer relation, the recovery, the fight against fraud, as well as the commercial prospection and the sending of promotional offers from We4sport ASBL.

The Data may be transmitted to providers of the Organizer for the purpose of processing orders and services offered related thereto (including your photos by the Official Photographer, the personalization of medals, etc.) and after-sales service as well as for customer relationship management purposes.

Participants are likely to receive by phone call and/or postal mail or email or SMS promotional offers from the Organizer's commercial partners to whom the Data may be transmitted and assigned for commercial prospecting purposes, provided that the participant has marked the box provided for this purpose when registering on the event site at the time of the creation of his account or later at the time of his registration to the Event. In any case, the participant may still oppose it in his "Member" area or under the conditions provided below.

ARTICLE 19 BIS - PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

The processing of personal data is subject to Belgian law (Law of 8 December 1992 on the protection of privacy with regard to the processing of personal data, amended by the law of 11 December 1998 transposing the Directive 95/46 / EC of 24 October 1995 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data).

ARTICLE 20 - RESPECT FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

In order to respect the environment and the natural areas crossed, it is strictly forbidden to abandon waste on the route. Trash bins will be available at each filling station and "collection areas" will be installed and signposted at different points along the route. They must be used by the participants.

The participants must keep the waste and packaging while waiting for the places indicated by the Organizer to get rid of it.

Any participant who does not comply with Article 20 will be disqualified.

ARTICLE 21 - PROHIBITED EQUIPMENT ON THE COURSE

Bicycles, wheeled and/or motorized vehicles are strictly forbidden on the course. The participant who would be followed by the aforementioned modes of travel will be taken out of the race, except for the Organizer's electric bicycles.

ARTICLE 22 – CANICROSS

Canicross is strictly forbidden.

ARTICLE 22 - ANTI-DOPING FIGHT

Anti-doping controls may be put in place at the Event. Event participants commit themselves to strictly respect the doping ban and the anti-doping control provisions as they result from the laws and regulations in force.

ARTICLE 24 - APPLICABLE LAW – DISPUTES

Belgian laws are applicable in case of litigation.
